Kia ora koutou, dear Parents, Whānau, and Friends,

Having the clocks returned to their rightful time seems to have been an official invitation to ngahuru – autumn – to imbue the world with its mood and colours. What a perfect time of the year to hold a Harvest Fair in our beautiful school.

Thank you to everyone who came to the working bee to help spruce up the grounds and gardens, and make craft and wooden things to sell. It was, by all accounts, a great day which was enjoyed by young and old. Ko koe ki tēnā, ko ahau ki tēnei kiwai o te kete.

There is a separate flyer for the Fair. Be sure to keep an eye out for last-minute information.

Be sure also to remember that Monday, 9 April, is a Teacher Development Day – there is no school or kindergarten.

See you all at the Fair – it's going to be a great day!

Hei konā mai,

Andrea Sorger
